

The Women's Empowerment Breakthrough Conference Counselor Application

Women's Empowerment Breakthrough Conference, a project of The Launch Pad Teen Center, is a three-day leadership conference for teenage girls in Yavapai County. The conference has been volunteer run since its inception in 2003. Each year, WEB relies on the generosity of women in our community to dedicate their weekends to our shared belief that teenage girls are intelligent, powerful change makers, and our future. If you believe in the insurmountable strength of teenage girls, this conference is a great fit for you!

Expectations for WEB Counselors:

As a WEB counselor you will have the unique opportunity to serve a variety of roles for our teenage girls. We will expect you to be their role models, their support system, and their teachers. In order for the WEB Conference to be successful, we need our counselors to commit to being physically and emotionally present for the full three days (April 5th-7th). Please take this commitment seriously. We can't do it without you! Thanks for your support and help in creating this opportunity for teenage girls here in Yavapai County.

Non-Discriminatory Policy:

Women's Empowerment Breakthrough does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national and/or ethnic origin, marital status, sexual orientation, body type, physical ability, gender expression, or other individual identities in the administration of any of its programs, admissions policies, scholarships, and other conference-related policies and programs, as well as volunteer policies and activities. All activities will promote and maintain the personal and emotional safety of all participants and volunteers.
